DODGERS SET HIT MARK; CUBS LOSE

Brooklyn Collects 23 Hits in Nine Innings Equaling Record Set by Braves Earlier in Season.

CUTSHAW GETS 6 HITS IN ROW

See Trim Athletics in Opener 5 to 4—Whales Glide Back to Top by Beating Brooklins.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 10.—Prominent among the high lights in the complete run of the Cubs yesterday was the hitting extraordinary of George Cutshaw, Brooklyn's second baseman. Parading to the plate six times in the most one-sided and farcical exhibition staged this season on the west side greens the little Dodger unbuckled six consecutive slugs, equaling the world's record established by Clarence (Ginger) Beaumont, former Pirate and Cub, July 22, 1893, in Pittsburgh. Cutshaw personally tallied two runs, drove in another and stole one sack in the messy pattern which ended 13 to 0.

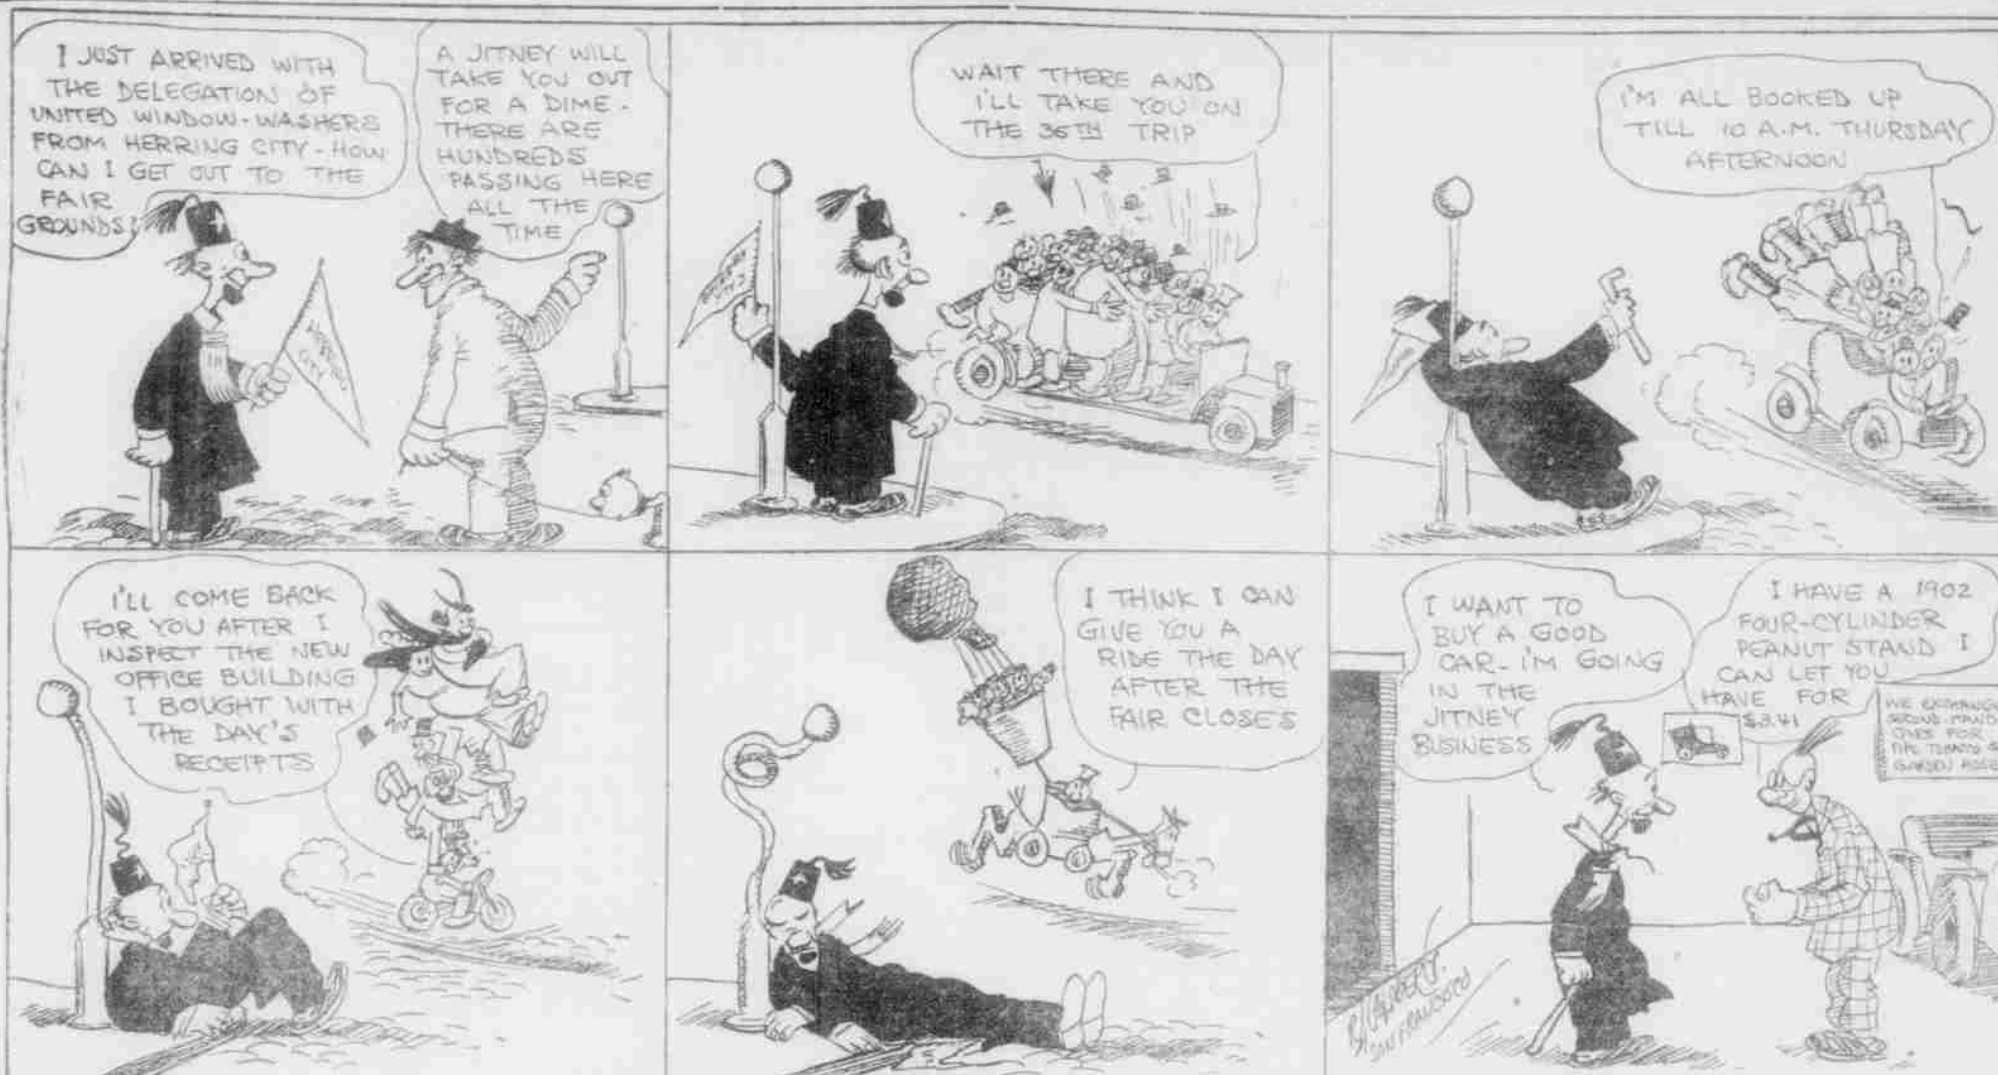

Just by way of rubbing it in on Brooklyn's men for a lacing the west sideers accorded them in Brooklyn early in the season, when the Cubs copied, 19 to 4, the visitors blew themselves to 23 hits for a total of 27 bases, smothering the offerings of G. Philbert Pierce and Pete Soundridge. Eight of these drives were assembled during Pierce's five-inning sojourn, which was marred by glaring blunders by Zimmerman and Phelan. Score:

Faber Saves Sox.
Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 10.—Being guilty of murder in the first degree, the White Sox defeated the Athletics yesterday afternoon at Shibe field in the first of the series here, 5 to 4. The four represent a weakened constitution of Urban Faber, who practically left the sick bed to try the lid open here. The eight do not show adequately how the pale horse men handled one Jack Nabors, late of Newman, Ga. With the game still in its swaddling clothes, it was "write your own ticket," against this product of the cotton belt. Still there should be no question of his deserving a Carnegie medal. He certainly earned one, twice every inning, as he did not leave all the punishment to the Sox, but inflicted twice as much on himself whenever the Hose lagged.

Whales Tie for Top.
Brooklyn, Aug. 10.—Air-tight pitching by Claude Hendrix in eight frames, when almost any kind of a blow meant runs, and a trick play by Tex Westcott in the ninth inning enabled the Whales to take the final game of the series from the Tip Tops yesterday, 2 to 1, giving the visiting team three of the four battles and enabling them to forge a tie for first through the downfall of Kansas City at Newark.
Bill Fisher's two-base wallop in the eighth inning gave the Whales their second run, which clinched the victory. The final verdict, however, might have been on the other side of the ledger had it not been for Tex Westcott's cunning against his old team mates in the last half of the final frame.

WIFE WON'T LET JAWN EVERS QUIT THE GAME

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 10.—Johnny Evers, captain of the Boston Nationals, world champion baseball team, will not quit the diamond, because his wife won't let him. At a solitary smoker given in his honor in a local church last night Evers told the "inside story" of the changing of his decision to retire from the baseball world.
"I had become mentally weary of the opprobrium heaped on me from quarters where I had reason to suppose I would receive support," Evers said, "and I had therefore firmly decided to quit. I wired my wife and for the first time in my life I asked her advice on something pertaining to the diamond. Her answer was 'stick and show them.' That's what I'm going to do."

900 BLOCK MAY FORM A FOOTBALL TEAM

Spurred on by recent successes on the diamond the 900 Block ball club will hold a meeting tonight at 925 Ninth street, to discuss the possibility of organizing a football team for the coming season. Allen Pratt, manager of the ball team, will be in charge of the meeting. Among the ball players is much good material for a football team and many other gridiron stars in the city have been invited to attend the meeting. The club is organizing in view of coping the city championship. However, if a heavy enough team can be organized they will go after higher laurels, tackling such teams as the Independents, Red Men and other star aggregations.

O'DAY PLAYS HERO BY SAVING UMPIRE

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 10.—Hank O'Day won a "Carnegie medal" for bravery under a new line of fire yesterday. The veteran diamond arbiter, who on Sunday reentered the National league service, qualified for the prize when he rescued Ernest C. Quigley, brother umpire, from death in a smoke-filled room under the Cubs' offices at the West Side ball park as the latter lay unconscious following the explosion of a gas stove.
The injured judge of play had entered the umpires' dressing rooms shortly before the start of the Cubs-Dodgers game to light the stove and prepare warm water for a bath after the contest. O'Day was in the hall near by when the stove exploded, hurling Quigley with terrific force through the open door, into the hall and against the wall. Hank rushed to the assistance of his unconscious comrade and bore him from the smoke-filled quarters, then retraced his steps and turned off the gas.

GRAHAM PITCHERS STEADY GAME

Davenport Takes Singlet From Rockford 5 to 1—Quincy Drops Opener at Peoria.

Following a successful trip on the road the Moline Three-Eye team opened on its home grounds yesterday by defeating Freeport 5 to 1. The Plow boys lammed Burnham whenever hits meant runs and every one of the five tallies was earned. Graham let the visitors down with five hits and pitched and fielded brilliantly in the pinches.

Moline secured three runs in the second inning. Stanley singled and Hughes followed with a two-bagger and both scored on Dobbins' single. Dobbins counted a moment later on White's safe hit. In the fourth Moline annexed another on a single by Dobbins and Falk's two-ply hit. The Plow boys' final tally came in the eighth on Pettigrew's screeching three bagger and Clayton's sacrifice fly.

In the seventh inning Freeport scored one on two singles and threatened a rally, which was choked by a lightning fast double play. Graham to Dobbins to Stanley. The score:
